

DR

Primary Care

URG
ENT

Urgent Care

ER

Emergency Room

	DR Primary Care	URG ENT Urgent Care	ER Emergency Room
When should you go?	Your first line of support when seeking health care	For non-life-threatening conditions when your doctor's office is unavailable	For life-threatening situations and any type of medical emergency
Who will provide care?	Family doctor, internal medicine doctor or physician assistant who helps manage your health, tracks your medical history and provides personalized care	Nurse, physician assistant or doctor	Doctors and nurses who are specially trained in emergency medicine, trauma and life-threatening conditions
How do you access care?	Appointments typically required, may be able to handle some walk-ins	Walk-in service	Walk-in service
What are the hours?	Business hours	Extended hours	24x7x365
What ailments/conditions will be treated?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Preventive/wellness screening Immunizations and flu shots Management of chronic conditions Common cold without fever Sinus infection Urinary tract infection 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bronchitis Common cold Cough Cuts requiring a few stitches Ear infection Fever Limb pain Mild vomiting or diarrhea Minor broken bone (finger or toe) Sinus infection Sore throat Sprains Urinary tract infection 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Abdominal pain Chest pain or trouble breathing Fever Large open wound Major broken bone (ie. leg) Major burn Poisoning Head injury Spinal injury Sudden loss of consciousness or dizziness Sudden and/or severe headache Uncontrollable bleeding
How will they diagnose your condition?	Basic diagnostic testing; additional test may be ordered	Basic diagnostic testing	In-depth diagnostic testing
What is the average cost?	$	$$	$$$
How does insurance work?	Typically takes insurance. Contact your insurance provider to confirm your doctor is "in network" and covered by your plan.	Typically takes insurance. You may pay out-of-pocket fee as part of your deductible for your insurance plan.	Typically takes insurance. You may pay an out-of-pocket fee as part of your deductible for your insurance plan.